

Evidence of vii keeping pedos secret in the SSCC

These extracts are scarce due to most of the venting being within vc's and me wiping my messages with his current account for personal reasons, but with smash community exposures and pyro one of the biggest commentators on the platform being exposed i don't think it's hard to believe that in a community where one guy gets exposed that many others are also hiding under the surface

I just realized that of all people I've had cancel culture thrown at me more times than like... anyone and this is the one time where I'm like, okay, even though this is wrong too

I give up

I'll explain my side, but I don't care anymore XD

sonicmeerkat 17/07/2020

Poor boi

Of all people to target eh

Deleted User 17/07/2020

Well... I'm not shocked

I've got dirt on everyone in the SSCC

I could basically ruin everyone from there and anyone associated and if people ask me why I never spoke up, I promised that I wouldn't because I'm honour bound

sonicmeerkat 17/07/2020

Yeah not surprised just more disappointed

Like I get the motives

Deleted User 17/07/2020

I will mention that I have dirt on everyone

sonicmeerkat 17/07/2020

But talking to you you're the sweetest guy

Deleted User 17/07/2020

but I will not crack in revealing everything

the only time I did

it was Doodle

and that was because she had blamed a victim of being groomed for getting groomed

@ Deleted User 4f9ceec2

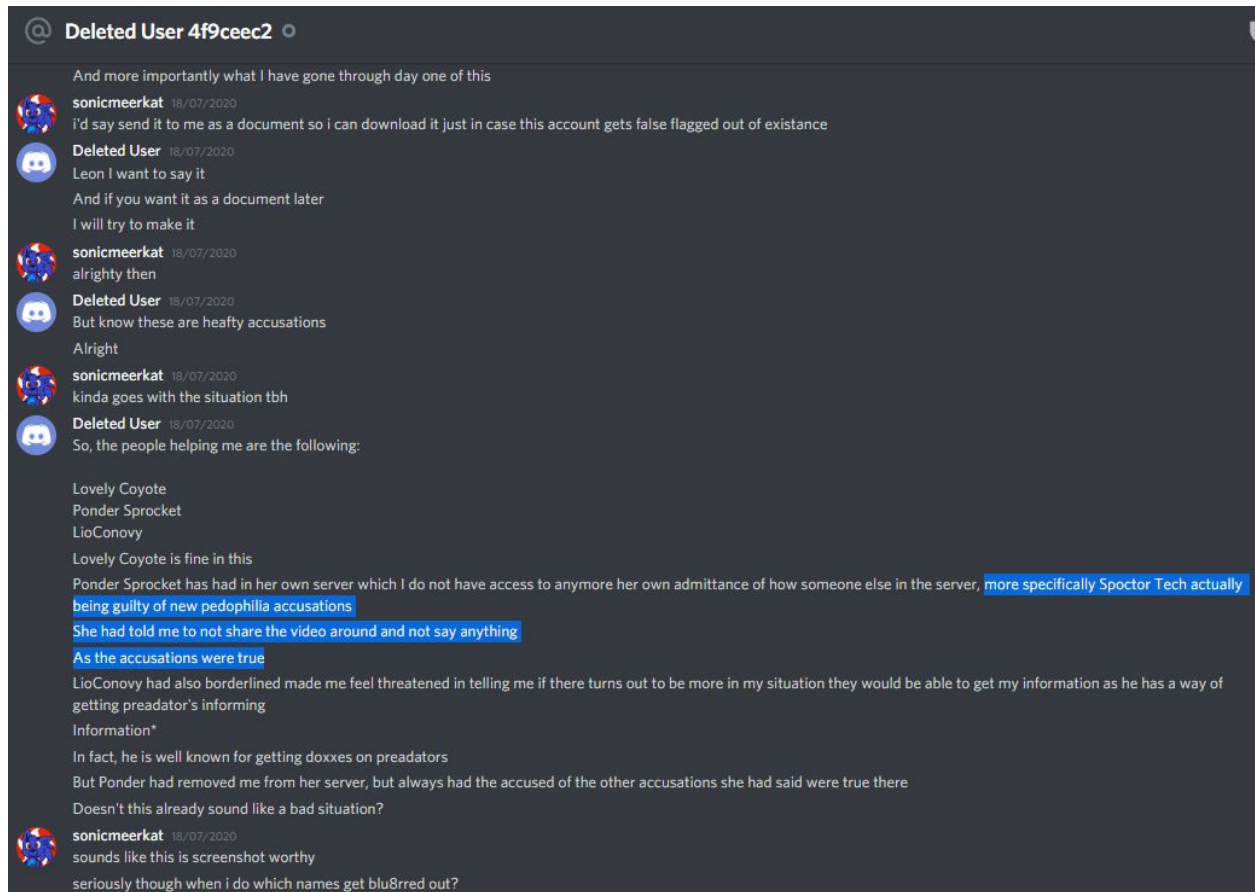

Deleted User 09/10/2019
I ended up leaving the CC when I found out that my friend Jonah was having a panic attack from me getting involved in a drama that involved them and Doodle wrongfully did tons of bad shit out in the public eye and behind the scenes and when I was going to do it to protect the community

sonicmeerkat 09/10/2019
some creators just lose the vast majority of their fanbase, some get people commenting on every post to make more sonic again

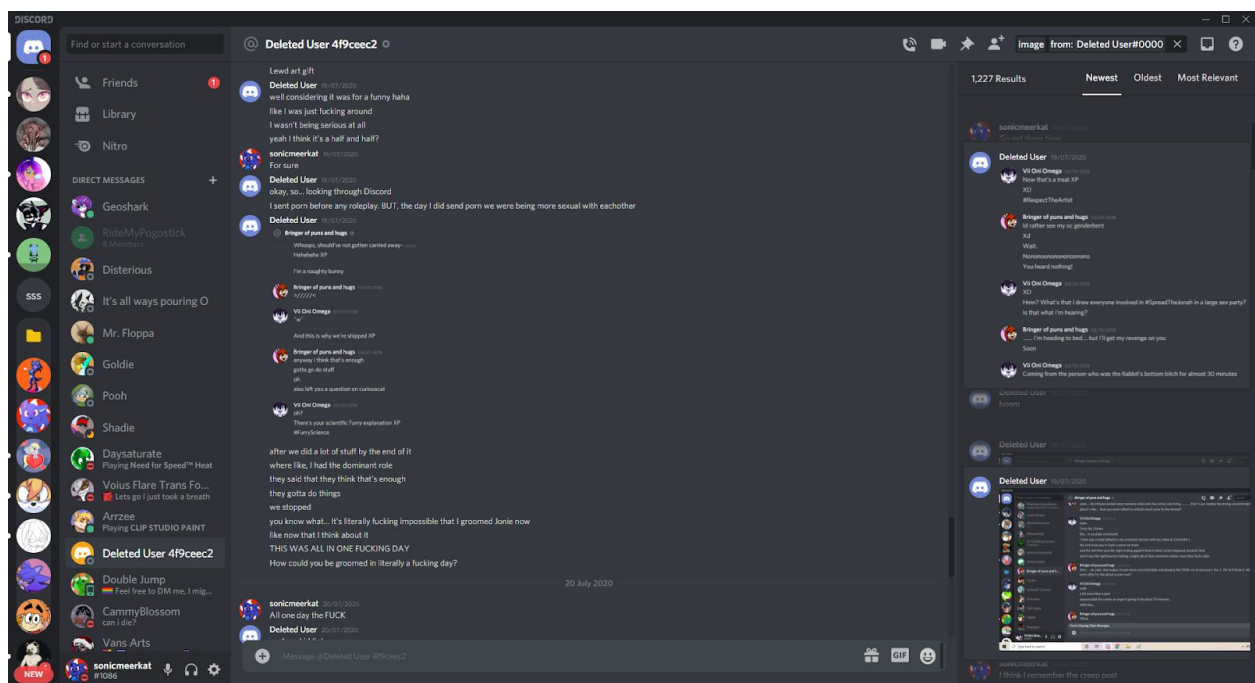

Deleted User 09/10/2019
I saw Jonah freaking out and I thought about it when typing quickly on my script I stopped reflected and closed my doc and told Jonah to not worry anymore I'm done with the CC sure it didn't make things better for them mentally BUT it did scare the fuck out of the CC when I suddenly left and they tried their damned hardest to not cause a controversy because they knew they were on thin ice with me at that point. After that point I got myself the fuck away from a lot of people in the CC because I figured out how fake a lot of these people were got around some furry servers because that's where I felt where I would be accepted I was the community likes me but I'm too shy to do much more lol they helped me get out of the rut I was within, and the CC is still having people trying to guilt me into coming back or insisting that I'm still apart of the CC despite me detailing why I ain't apart of it anymore wayyyy back then Like people were and still are going as far to say that for me to not be associated anymore, I have to drop commentary and stop associating with people from the CC because, "That's what members do" It's VERY cult like behaviour and that's why I'm still pissed off with them I'm holding back on them FOR NOW because a popular member of the community was outed as a pedophile recently and honestly the last thing they need right now is to be bashed they need any support they can get but honestly if the Sonic Fandom has been as nice towards me as it has been currently and as long as I keep up on the trail of like... not trying to cause shit... I doubt anything is gonna happen that and... as long as the CC and or any potential new fans of mine don't clash...

It... wasn't easy when I saw that happen once with my friend Keyblade, and honestly I just don't want to see that anymore. and like... I know if I make one mistake the CC is ready to pounce on me They've been like that for years.

This one isn't a secretive thing but due to the community having actually outed a pedo it backs up my point that there are others beyond vii

Evidence that deleted user is vii omega

So yeah vii has access to dms of vii because i sure haven't been on good terms enough with the ssc to speak to jonie, i can provide more but really you can see how he's the one bitching about jonie being two faced, fairly obvious it's him.

Evidence astral/アストラル is actually vii

So while i did clear my dms i do have screenshots left over from when i was seeking advice on a situation between us, i might make a vent video to fully explain why i snapped and am releasing this information on skylar now (depends on if this is sufficient, most likely won't need to now that i wrote this out) but long story short he crossed a line by saying (paraphrased) you don't know me irl, i could have lied about everything i told you, which is not only one of the most manipulative things you could say to someone, but it is particularly hurtful when he also says that you're close to him and that he'd date you if distance wasn't an issue, thing is though he didn't just say this once, the first time was months ago when he was still alcoholic and on 2 brain numbing pills that made him think like a toddler, the second was when he was sober on a much more moderate dosage of his meds months later with the same trigger of me asking questions about a new relationship which showed me that his changes weren't those of becoming a better person, he remained the same toxic piece of shit from before, it was just recovering his mental state, something that he'd constantly use for self pity to get people to act the way he'd want around them.

Now for the actual evidence.

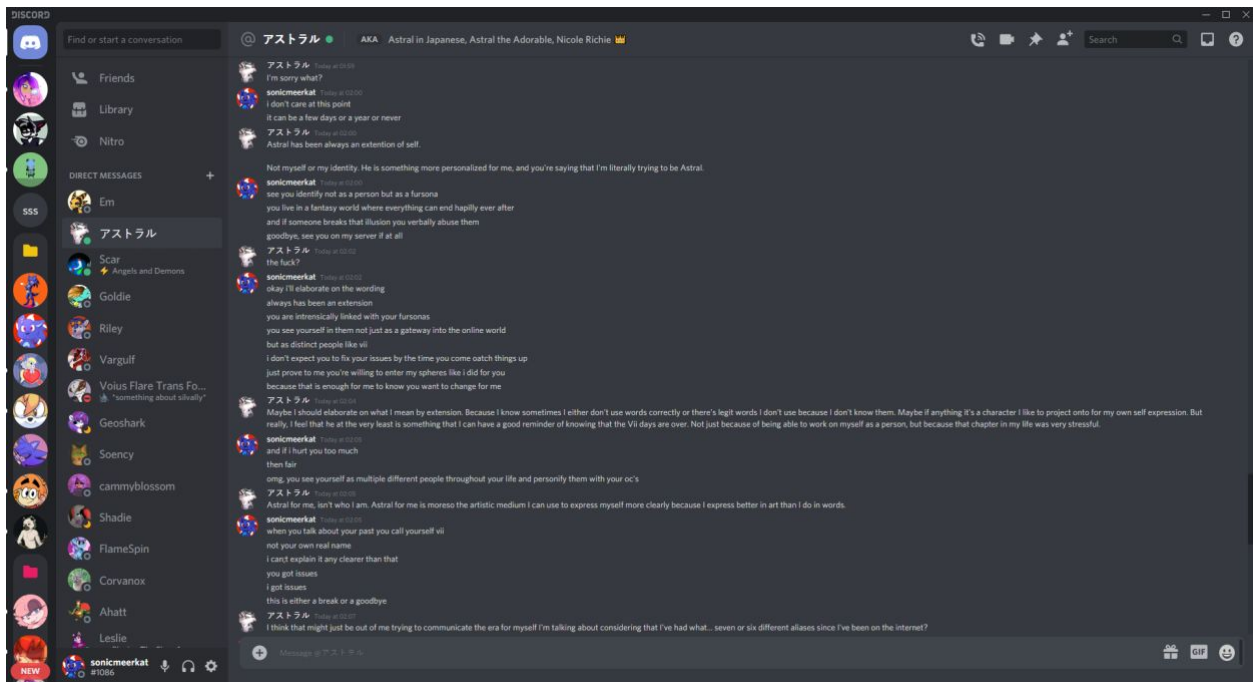

I only showed one friend who's a public defender to avoid pulling more people into shit especially since i was trying to push him to socialise to help his mental health so for a short while before deletion he changed his twitter username his nickname skye, short for skylar, a name he's trying to change to legally due to daddy issues, i won't get into them because it's none of my business but if you were wondering why me and always pouring refers to him as this name, that's the reason, because it will eventually be so probably sometime after he gains citizenship.

And here's the actual hardball where i directly go on about astral, vii and skylar as all being the same people where he's like "atras always been an extension of me" like he's a bloody otherkin.

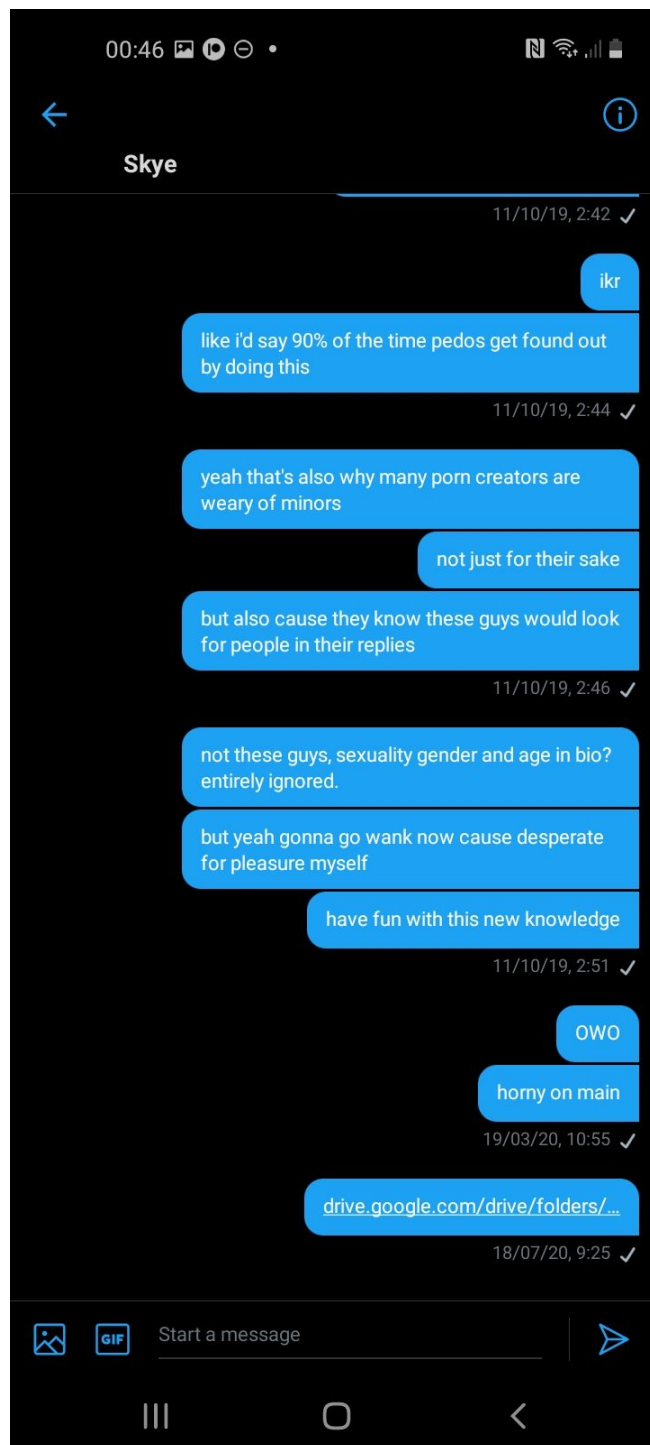

Reason for this interaction is he gets irrationally angry at people judging him as if he's still vii DESPITE IT NOT EVEN BEING A FUCKING YEAR SINCE HE SWITCHED OC'S

Not only this but the reason always pouring knows that astral is vii is despite the fact he's underaged, skylar invited him to a private server full of adults where even while the kid was a member people jacked off in vc, i was originally going to try to keep skylars current identity a secret but because pouring already released it and i want him to actually sort out his life instead of leeching on his roommates without a bank account because he's too busy grinding world of light just so he can prove a petty point to a friend as he's on vc all day playing games and when anything slightly negative comes up he tells people to shut up because he isn't feeling great, he's just played games all day for 6 months and now he's so used to being a leech that he won't even fix his bank account and actually use his alias to gain commission money to help his roommates out.

So yeah fuck you skylar you worthless piece of shit, you had the potential to be something bigger but when you faced adversity you crawled into a hole to disappear and stayed there for over half a year now, i get needing time to recover but you take the piss more than british pot hole fillers.

Why release this shit now?

So basically i'd hear about always pouring informally when it comes to his grooming, i distinctly remember 2 occasions, one on twitter where his dms are cleared due to his deletion as pictured here

So the first occasion was in twitter dms where he told me he was teaching a 15 year old art, sounds innocent enough but then he told me that it was nsfw art where he then rambled about the minor sexualising his oc portraying it as pouring making the advances, i was a little eh on it, i reconised it as standing on a fine line but this being before the jonie accusations that lead him into hiding i forgot about it until my retrospection.

The second occasion was during a vc including kit, i apologise for dragging you into this but you are a public defender so this backs up my side, i'll give you a benefit of a doubt that you didn't have the same access to information we do now and that you only knew as much as i did, that there were lewd interactions but not that skylar instigated.

So basically when skylar was having a full on mental breakdown in tears after being consoled he didn't actually groom jonie (i'm not opening that can of worms, i only received evidence from one side keeping out of the situation publicly due to knowing my reputation with the ssc already and knowing only a rebuttal from vii himself would be able to serve as evidence of the contrary) he mentions that he was sexual with his "child" (i know i'm a furry but fuck furry family groups are just so fucking uncomfortable for me especially when sex is involved) and kit responds that because skylar didn't instigate it he's protected by rape laws.

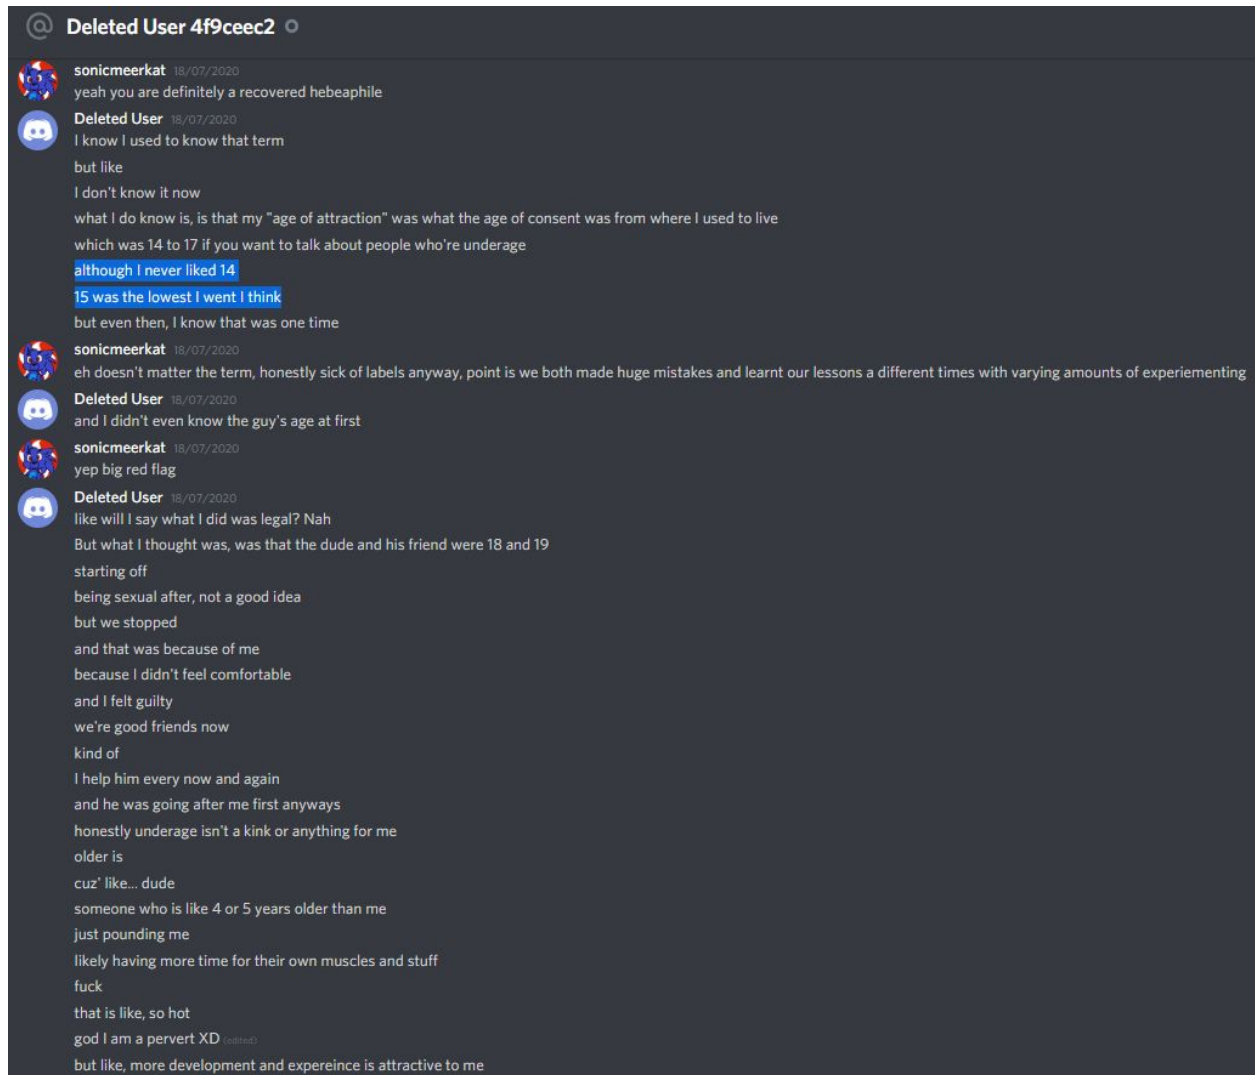

I just nodded along at the time because i was more concerned with making skylar feel better but;

- 1) That law is infamous in its abuse by adult women raping minors and forcing them to pay allamony
- 2) That law doesn't even apply because it applies to forceful sexual interactions, such as someone being pulled into a back alley and flat out molested, for the internet you can immediately revoke consent by blocking someone

Of course i sadly didn't record it due to never filming dms (and it may have been illegal, those two live in seperate states and i live in england, international law is fucking wack with extradition being a thing) but by his own admission skylar is a pedophile, i don't care if you think jonie and the ssc set him up to hide their own dirt, that doesn't absolve him, obviously knowing he knows dirt on everyone including pedos and keeping it secret out of a misplaced feeling of honour is fucking disgusting in itself and i hope he does fucking repent his crimes by actually outing the other pedos he knows of to prevent any other minors from getting abused.

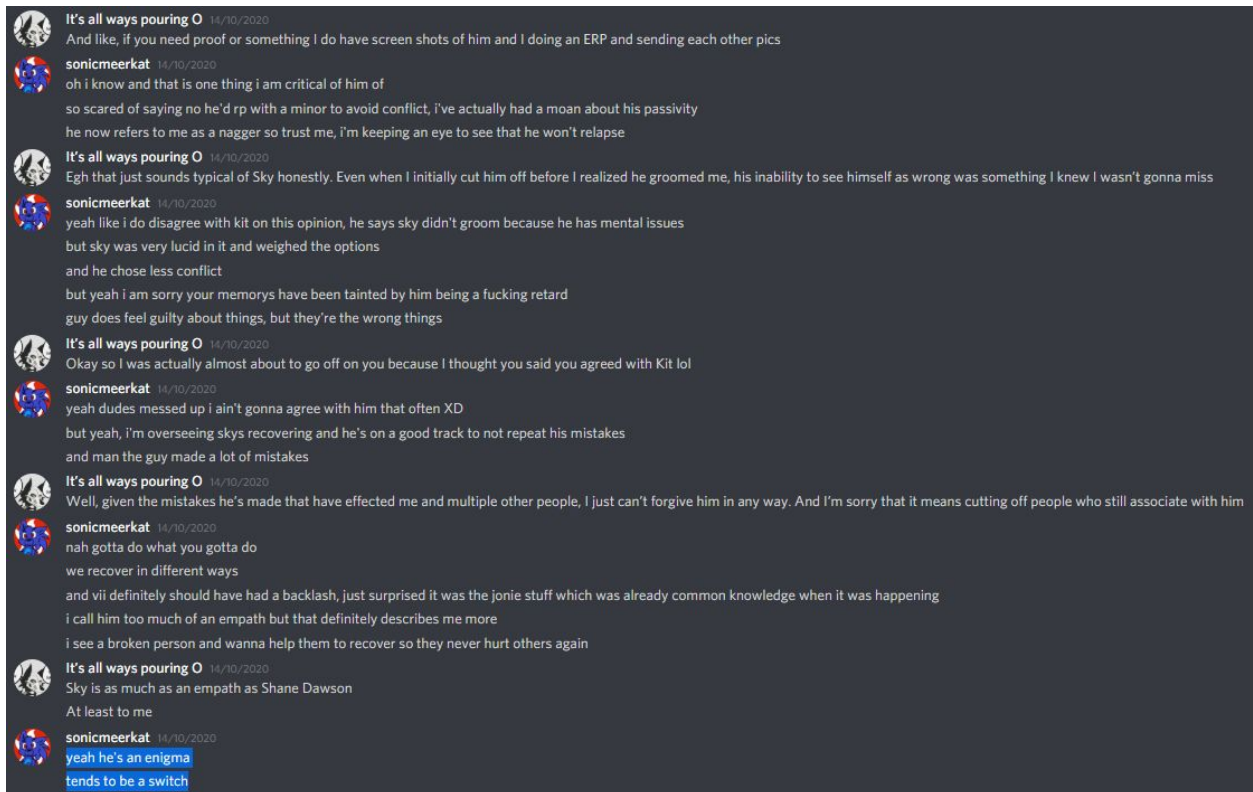

Also just one thing i'd like to note, viis and jonies relationship was public and it took 3 years for the community to out him for it, within that time he managed to get into contact with always pouring, for the love of fucking god don't hold onto this information for "insurance", actually release what you know to protect future victims from being influenced by influencers

As for why i waited, by the time i found out he had already went into hiding and sworn off minors due to it being too stressful breaking the law, bit of a fucked reason but one less pedo is one less pedo, in fact in here's some stuff to clear my own back XD

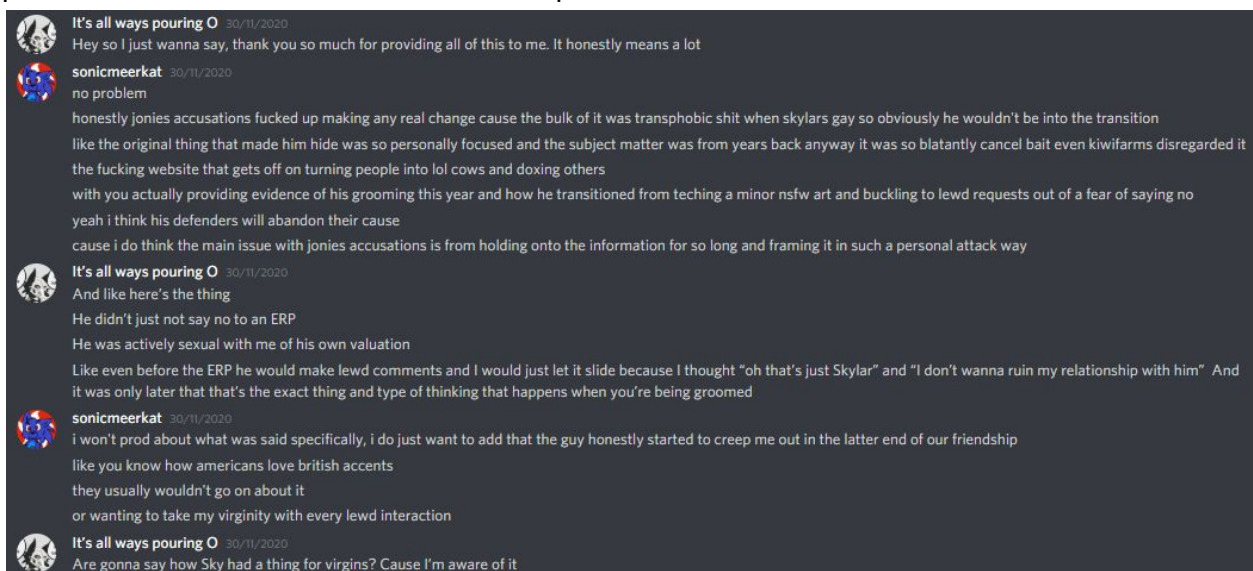

The reason why i highlighted this is because that's a flat out lie, pouring was 14 during some points of their interactions. (also ugh i actually said hebeaphile wtf is wrong with me?)

Now lets get to my stuff with pouring so we can see how i came to my realisation that i should back up his accounts.

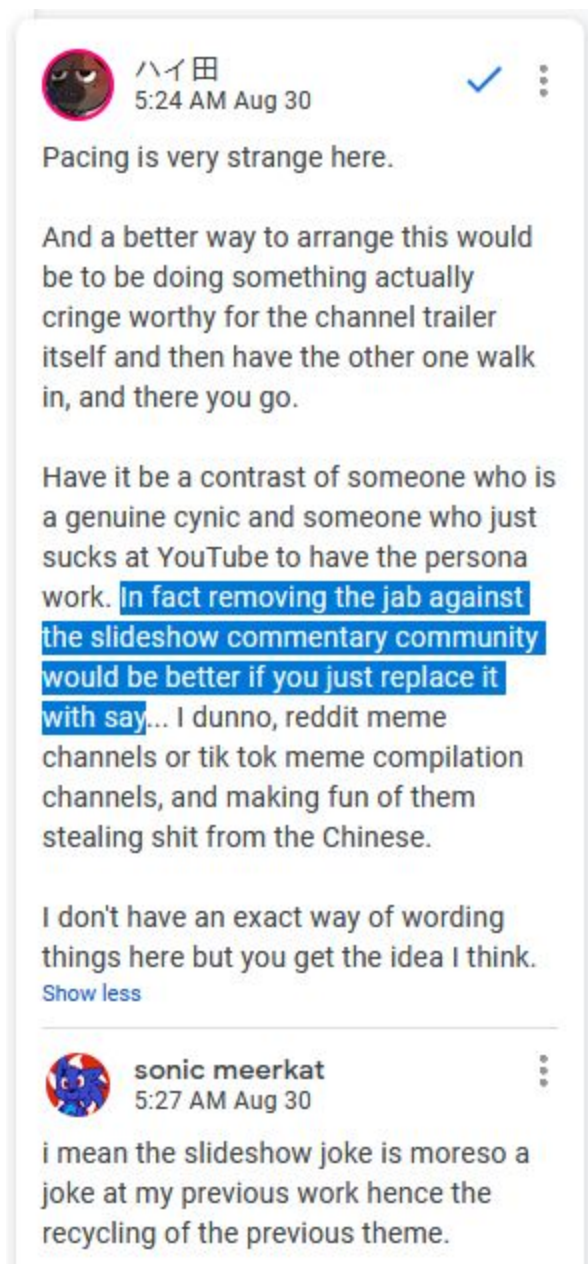

So you see here i do reconise that skylar is cognitive but this was back when i was in denial or complete misunderstanding, the thing about switching, no he's not empathic he's sensitive, if he sees someone in a bad mood it makes him feel bad, not because he puts himself in their shoes but because they bring the mood down, he'll happily tell people to just not talk about their problems as a solution unlike an actual empath.

So this is my big trigger for making this, took a while admittedly cause mental health but aye, half a month is a reasonable amount of time especially with work added, and yes this is how he found out about the anime pfp alt that skylar was using to comment, guy literally commented on my gamegrumps video day of its creation and of course when i asked for peer review, wanted me to remove the ssc joke to avoid further drama (that was moved to dms, honestly no loss losing the discord dms before my big beef, i made my point enough)

And i'm gonna include my links i gave pouring so it can be verified, since i am aware cropped screenshots are easy to scrutinise, i at least want something to be able to be verified as real.
[https://docs.google.com/document/d/11uHmYJ0E9sj\_C9yLqxPOntiPOpXaxwrCNMwrs6tTndE/e dit?usp=sharing](https://docs.google.com/document/d/11uHmYJ0E9sj_C9yLqxPOntiPOpXaxwrCNMwrs6tTndE/e dit?usp=sharing)

And the highlighted comment made the day of the channels creation

Skylars face

@ Deleted User 4f9ceec2

good point

"nah he ain't a pedo, if anything he's the one who got touched up"

Deleted User 06/07/2020

I mean... I... Was... >.>

In fact I was raped

Soo.... Yeah

But yeah no. I actually look like a girl

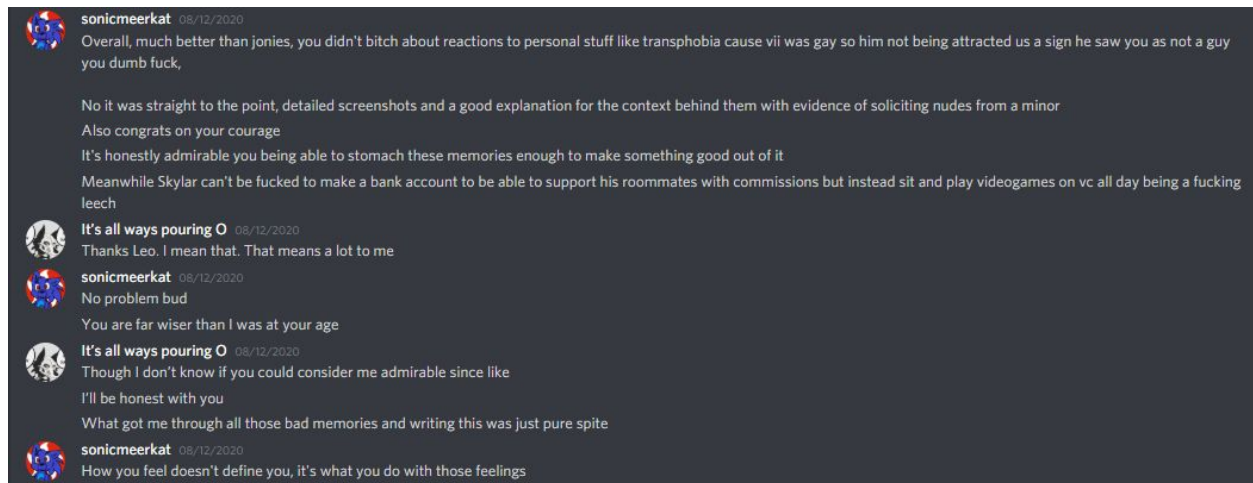

As long as I don't have facial hair that is

Apologies for the whole pedo comment, just need to show it's from the deleted account, but basically the story behind that is that he was himself groomed and was complimented with terms like sota boy/girl (can't remember, either a boy who looks like a loli girl or just a loli girl, with groups he grew up around it's no wonder why he has such childish tastes)

You guys already know his voice from his videos, this is the guy who fully admits he's done illegal shit with minors when he was of age only stopping when he turned 20 to instead play videogames on discord calls all day.

So if you were wondering what pushed pouring over the edge, it was seeing how skylar got out scot free and is now living rent free free to ignore his problems nomatter how important they actually are cough bank account closing

I'm not going to pretend this isn't made out of petty spite too, i spent months helping him recover mentally only for him to constantly tell me that my approach to shit is wrong or dilly dally shilly shally two people took different paths up a hill, as if someone who is capable of functioning is on the same level as a literal pedophile who justifies their shitty actions by their emotions (then stands by them after the mood passes making such reasoning complete bullshit) and doesn't let people judge because they've been through too much.

As if nobodys gone through abuse before without came out a fucking scummy pedophile incapable of providing for themselves even in their 20's.

Open message to skylar

We all know you're capable of just making a new account and starting again with the people who still believe there's a good person under all the drama, but i peeked under the mask and while i do think you still have the potential to learn from your mistakes, suck up the pain enough to sort your life out and become self sufficient and genuinely care more for the people around you beyond sex drive and security in your living situation, i know for a fact you have your head so far up your arse that anytime you become stressed enough to think about how you could possibly be wrong you'll swallow another pill to become a toddler incapable of progressive thought and just drink the feelings away, you done that before many times such as your confrontation with your husband about cheating when you chose to withhold that information for months from his partner at the time and when the partner retardedly suggested a poly relationship to fix everything despite being in a unofficial relationship already with someone you pushed to make it open despite their dislike, you agreed and when you sobered up you broke up with them. I left out a lot of details, it gets more fucked the more i explain so i'll leave it at that.

You seem to think that being sedated makes you less dangerous to everyone around you but here's the truth skylar, you only hurt people when you don't think, like let's look at the situation you were in when we split ties, you were grinding the smash spirits 100% not because you enjoyed the game but to be able to tell one of your friends they're wrong about world of light being good, what is that going to achieve? Spark an argument to make someone trying to make you enjoy a game they like feel bad that they stressed you out?, you're spending your time on petty as shit research for an essay as petty as the SSCC's you bitched about while your fucking bank account got closed so you can't use paypal so you're incapable of taking commissions on an alt to gather funds to pay for yourself so the people you guilt trip on a daily basis with your crappy emotions that never get better because you never tackle the root cause to pay for everything you use from your home, to your food, to the electricity you drain on calls every waking moment.

You think you can run from your problems but you can't, you're going to keep making people dissociate from you out of shame to a point you're either arrested or homeless, be better skylar, stop being a drain on resources and actually focus on being self sufficient, you can start with fixing your bank account during the time you have to play videogames, yes it's stressful but that's life, grow the fuck up, it doesn't kick you while you're down, it doesn't kick you off your highest peak, it just fucking kicks you, put on some armour to be able to take the blows, you can focus on learning a good balance of emotion and function after you're self sufficient.

Fix your bank or get a new one (or just make a paypal connected to someone elses bank), get a paypal to pay funds into it, make a new dumb fuck japanease character user on art sites and use your skills to pay for your food, that's all i ask of you, prove to yourself you can provide for yourself so you can start learning how to stop being a shit head teenager and finally act your age.

Btw your husband being older doesn't make you not a pedo, i've seen how they act, my 11 year old sister acts more mature, it's no wonder why you were attracted to them.

Apologies for the jab just come on this is too depressing and the jab was far too easy

Closing

Take what i and always pouring have said however you like, just know both of us have our own reasons for disassociation, mines admittedly much more petty but knowing that he's withheld information about pedos in the past and how he continues to not tell the full explanation behind his actions only using the same emotional fronts he stands by when his emotions change, but knowing he uses those fronts to change the framing of his pedophilia to make it look not as bad as it actually is, i just couldn't keep this to myself despite the petty feelings i'd inevitably make public along with them, hence the information was actually front loaded.

I'm not going to pretend my coming out is better handled than pourings, i'm mostly also providing solid evidence that he created the accounts that pouring outed, skylars still on his astral account on servers so i know that the allegations haven't traveled so, guess i gotta get myself into petty drama for the sake of getting the information out there.
